

With NEC systems, small companies can have "big company" features.

Call your NEC dealer today to find out:

- How can I win the message management battle?
- How can my employees stay productive while mobile?
- How can my phone system raise the professional image of my company?
- How much time and money can I save by converging my voice and data network?
- How can I share voicemail and system features between sites?
- How can my communication system enhance security?

Call your authorized NEC dealer to discuss how an Aspire can make you more competitive and productive. With special product promotions and financing programs in place, it's a great time to give us a ring.

Since 1899...We've kept the phone ringing.

Since its founding more than 100 years ago, NEC has established a worldwide reputation for communications innovation and reliability. And NEC systems are designed so that you can implement new technology all at once or phase it in, however your business needs dictate. The choice is up to you.

That's the case with Aspire. NEC's newest key telephone system lets you install a traditional communication system or migrate to Voice over IP when you're ready.
